See you soon!

For the 20th birthday of a&o: new houses, plenty of service and the greenest a&o for our guests

20 years! This year, a&o is celebrating a landmark anniversary - we started out as a team of ten in 2000, now we're a team of over 1,000 people, between 16 and 76 years of age, from more than 42 nations! Our properties accommodate as many people every day as live in a small city. a&o currently operates at 39 locations in eight countries, with new properties due to open in Copenhagen and Budapest later this year. Florence will be getting its first a&o soon too. We opened our doors in Warsaw at the beginning of the year – a&o's first property in Poland. Almost all of our properties have been redesigned too as part of our major design relaunch.

a&o is and will always be a European hostel chain! Our guests are our priority, and offering the best value for money is what we do. Travelling must be affordable, because it helps us to cross borders and learn new cultures. In 2019, over 40 % of our guests were from other countries. In 2017, this figure was 25 %.

We started out offering class trips and this remains one of a&o's core passions. Travelling with young people creates its own set of challenges but provides important and formative experiences. We help with the organisation and implementation of class trips - as demonstrated by our ever-growing array of offers for groups and families. More and more solo travellers, couples, senior citizens and business travellers are discovering a&o for themselves too. To offer the best possible travel experience, we use technology: we offer web check-in everywhere, and half of our properties already have fast check-in kiosks and express desks.

We are also investing in mobile key technology, which allows you to check in and open your hotel room door using your smartphone. This means less waiting and more convenience, and frees our teams up to help guests with any questions they may have. We are creating the post of Hospitality Director to focus more intently on the needs of our guests.

20 years of a&o is an important landmark: This year, we will have over 30,000 beds available for guests from all over the world. This also entails significant responsibility for climate and environmental protection. Right from the outset, a&o has been committed to the more sustainable use of our resources. Whether it be bio-degradable cleaning products, water-saving showers and toilets and the deliberate non-use of small packaged items such as soap, our contribution to protecting the environment very much reflects our belief that #everyonechange! All of the electricity that a&o uses comes from green energy, and up-cycling is more than just a buzzword for us. Almost all of our properties are established buildings, and our aim is to achieve maximum energy efficiency. a&o is already producing three times less CO<sub>2</sub> than other budget hotels, and we want to be as CO<sub>2</sub>-neutral as possible in 2022!

We do all this so that we can continue to say: EVERYONE CAN TRAVEL!

Yours,

Oliver Winter
CEO of a&o

3x less CO<sub>2</sub> compared to other budget hotels

– Only 8.8 kg CO<sub>2</sub> per overnight stay

This means that a&o is already 66 % below the consumption of other hotels. Our goal: to be as CO<sub>2</sub>-neutral as possible in 2022.

–66 %

Saving water in our hostel

– 150,000,000 l

We save water

Since 2006, a&o has been using water-saving shower heads. This allowed 150,000,000 litres water to be saved. This is equivalent to about one million filled bathtubs.

Our contribution to environmental protection #everyonecanchange

Our approach to waste management

1 WASTE SEPARATION

Since 2000, a&o
separates all waste
in the houses.

2 NO PLASTIC TOOTHBRUSH CUPS

Since 2017, a&o has already completely passed on the use of plastic toothbrush cups.

4 LARGE SOAP DISPENSERS

Many small soap packs cause much waste.
Therefore, a&o has been using soap dispensers
since 2009.

3 NO PLASTIC PACKAGING FOR BREAKFAST

a&o does not use
needless small packaging (for example for jams or butter).

5 PAPER STRAWS

Since the end of 2019,
a&o relies entirely on
paper straws.

6 BRING YOUR OWN MUG!

Since 2007, a&o has
been filling drinks
into reusable cups of our guests.
In addition there is even a small discount on top.

We need you!

Help us to extend our accomplishments
– together for our environment on

Bremen

Bremen’s oldest quarter, the Schnoorviertel, lies in the city’s Old Town, its small alleyways filled with unique little shops, handicrafts, cafés, and restaurants. At its heart stands St Peter’s Cathedral, a church that has been rebuilt and expanded so often that the structure now boasts an extraordinary mix of different styles and eras. After a walk along the ramparts, make sure to pay the Kunsthalle Bremen a visit. Take a quick picture with the famous Bremen Town Musicians at the market, enjoy a whiff of fresh harbour air by the Weser, and head off to bed at a&o, right by the main railway station.

Cologne

The merriest time of year in Cologne is by far the carnival season. Here, in the bastion of German carnival, celebrate the so-called „fifth season“ in style together with all the other jesters and merry-makers – just don’t forget to shout the classic greeting „Kölle Alaaf“. For connoisseurs of more refined tastes, the Chocolate Museum is a real must-see, as is Museum Ludwig with its excellent modern art exhibitions. Don’t forget to visit the impressive Cologne Cathedral, a UNESCO World Heritage Site nearly 158 metres high. The Cathedral, Museum Ludwig, and your comfortable bed at one of our a&o’s can all be found right by the city’s central railway station.

a&o Cologne Dom

Komödienstraße 19–21, D-50667 Cologne | Reservation center: +49 221 257 2257 4500

The location of this a&o is as cosy as the bed you’ll be sleeping in: the main railway station is just two minutes away on foot, and Cologne Cathedral is literally steps away. If you find yourself unable to move after a long night of carnival partying, then well, you’ve come to the right place. There are 41 single, double, and family rooms, and like at every a&o, a bathroom with shower/WC. You enjoy free Wi-Fi throughout the building, and the staff at the reception are always ready to help with a smile.

Munich

The capital of Bavaria is well worth a visit even outside of Oktoberfest; though “d’Wiesn” is certainly unique, attracting people from all over to celebrate the world’s greatest Volksfest. But Munich is a fantastic destination when the days get a bit warmer too. Ride your bike through the English Garden, stop for a breather in a beer garden and savour a Weißwurst with sweet mustard, take a nap on the banks of the Isar or even hop in to cool off. And on rainy days, the Museum Brandhorst and the Pinakothek der Moderne are great places to go and enjoy art. And if you’re looking to bring home some local souvenirs from your Munich trip, head to the Viktualienmarkt in the old town, not far from „Alter Peter“, the oldest parish church in the city.

And while that all sounds so nice, we’ve saved the best for last: the roof terrace on the 5th floor with a breathtaking panoramic view of the Alps and the city of Munich – because we really know how to make luxury affordable.

Nuremberg

There's no better city to get in the mood for the most festive time of the year than Nuremberg. Held amongst the medieval architecture is the famous Christkindlesmarkt, where visitors are greeted by the aroma of mulled wine and gingerbread. But even outside the Christmas season, Nuremberg is absolutely worth a visit. Marvel at modern art and design classics at the Neues Museum, and go to Albrecht Dürer's House, a beautiful half-timbered structure where you will learn about the life and ways of the painter in the house where he lived and worked for some 20 years. A true gem of the city is Zum guldenen Stern, the oldest bratwurst restaurant in the world, where you can dine until the wee hours. Afterwards, get a midnight snack at our bar, which is open all night for our guests.

Weimar

There’s no end to the culture and history on display in this city. In stately Weimar, follow in the footsteps of true geniuses and visit places like the Goethe National Museum, the Schiller Residence, or the Cranach House – everything is conveniently located at short distances from one other, all in the Old Town. Make sure to also pay the Dolomiti ice cream café on the market square a visit, where you can choose from among 36 different varieties. In the southern part of Weimar, marvel at the baroque Schloss Belvedere with its 43-hectare park, the Orangerie and Lust Garten; take a bike or a stroll and explore it all at your own pace when the weather’s nice. Weimar offers fans of modern architecture and arts a particular treat: the numerous Bauhaus sites that are spread out all over the town.

a&o Weimar

Buttelstedter Straße 27c, D-99427 Weimar | Reservation center: +49 3643 49 300 3100

Weimar’s certainly not the largest city in Germany, so you can leave your car or bus in our parking lot and hire a bike from us – or take the bus, which stops right outside our door.

Graz

The capital of the Austrian state of Styria has been a designated UNESCO City of Design since 2011. Its lively creative scene makes it clear that this title is well deserved: many hip, youthful labels and designers have set up shop here. The oldest and largest market in Graz is the Kaiser-Josef-Markt, where you can taste fresh local delicacies from Monday to Saturday. In the handsome Stadtpark, the impressive Kunsthaus Graz exhibits contemporary art, not far from Graz Cathedral. The city’s most famous son is perhaps Arnold Schwarzenegger; you can visit the museum dedicated to him in the village of Thal, 4 km away. You can reach it easily by train, and we’re practically right next door to the central station!

It also features tabletop football, billiards, a bar and book swap, a children’s corner, and a meeting room. And when we say centrally located – well, we mean it: Eggenberg Palace is just 15 minutes away.

If Mozart were still alive today, he'd have certainly enjoyed today's Vienna as much as his own. The Austrian capital boasts an incredible collection of architectural treasures: the Belvedere, St Stephen's Cathedral, the Vienna State Opera, and the Albertina art museum. Vienna is a paradise for culture lovers, but also for gourmets: Vienna's Naschmarkt is the city's largest market, with national and international specialties from as far away as Japan and China. You can experience the renowned Viennese coffee culture in one of the numerous traditional cafés spread all over the Old Town. And the Kalke Village shopping center is the site of one very special attraction: a toilet designed by Hundertwasser.

Prague

The capital of the Czech Republic is also called the „Golden City“; visit Prague in when the sun's out, and you'll find out why: when the sun hits the many sandstone towers scattered throughout the city, Prague shimmers in the most beautiful shades of gold. Franz Kafka was born in Prague, and his photos and letters are on display in the Kafka Museum on the banks of the Vltava. The oldest square in town, the Old Town Square, hosts various markets and events all throughout the year. Stroll over Charles Bridge to be rewarded with a splendid panoramic view of Prague. From here, you can also see Prague Castle and St. Vitus Cathedral looming in the distance.

Whether it is culture, nightlife, or shopping you are after, Budapest has a lot to offer. Perhaps you will want to start your day in this Hungarian metropolis with a walk through the Jewish Quarter, before relaxing on Margaret Island. You can also head to one of the numerous thermal baths, such as the Széchenyi Spa Baths, where the underground water springs will pamper you. And if you get hungry, you can look for a lovely restaurant with Hungarian, Austrian, or international cuisine. Afterwards, you can visit the original bars in the Erzsébetváros district, just minutes from your a&o bed.

Venice

The city of gondolas is simply a wonderful destination, and not just during the exciting Biennale di Venezia. The most famous square in Venice is St Mark's Square with the Doge's Palace and St Mark's Basilica. Of all the bridges the city boasts, the most famous one is certainly the Ponte di Rialto spanning the Grand Canal that meanders through the romantic lagoon city. A great alternative to typical restaurants are the city's numerous b  cari, where you can savour some cicchetti – Venetian tapas. In the evening, the Campo Santa Margherita transforms from a bustling market where the locals buy fresh fish and fruit to a vibrant meeting place where students and other young people meet.
